What Are Cookies?

This website uses cookies. Cookies are tiny files downloaded to your computers or mobile devices to improve your user experience. This document describes what information they gather, and how they are used.

The Cookies We Set

When you submit data through a form such as those found on contact pages or comment forms, cookies may be set to remember your user details for future correspondence.

Third-party Cookies

From time to time, we use third-party cookies provided by our analytics service providers to improve the user experience of our website.

We may also use social media buttons and/or plugins that allow you to connect to your social networking websites. For it to work, social media websites such as Facebook and Twitter will set cookies through our website for purposes outlined in their privacy policies.

Disabling Cookies

You can prevent the setting of cookies by adjusting the settings on your browser. Be aware that disabling cookies will affect the functionality of this and many other websites that you visit.
